

SMILE Teacher Winter Workshop

The SMILE high school teachers met at the Winter Teacher's Workshop held at Oregon State University. The focus was on club activities supporting the 2012 Ocean Science Challenge.

Teacher professional development is essential in support of ocean science education. Sharing the ocean science content with teachers increases their ability to engage students in the afterschool SMILE clubs by linking student's interest and knowledge to academic persistence and attainment.