

SMILE's Ocean Science Challenge

High school students from eleven Oregon HS's participated in SMILE's Ocean Science Challenge. They learned how a healthy ocean habitat contributes to healthy fisheries and a healthy diet.

The participants in SMILE's clubs are underrepresented students for whom a College Connection event makes future academic and career goals a real possibility. Teams learned about ocean's role in the support of human health.